

Festival Announcement

Girogirocorto Film Festival – 4th Edition will take place in Rome in the Fall of 2019.

For the third time the festival will take place in the important location of the French Institute-Center Saint Louis in Rome. The precise dates will be announced in the coming months.

Girogirocorto Film Festival accepts both Italian and International submissions and it will be open to all genres, Fiction, animation, experimental and documentary.

For the 4th Year in the parallel section of the festival, “A better future”, there will be a selected space for short-movies about immigration, integration and life in the countries of the third world.

Two prizes will be assigned by a jury of representatives from the movie world: Best short-film and Best Director, plus an honorable mention for the “A better future” film who will best highlight the social problems presented in this section.

For the best short-film this year we can give, as an award, four days in a house in the countryside of Umbria (trip fees included). For the best director we'll give a silver plate from an artisan from Rome.

Filmmakers can participate with a maximum of a maximum of two short-movies completed after the 1st of January 2016.

Short movies must not exceed 30 minutes in duration, including end titles.

Foreign language short movies should have Italian or English subtitles, a preference given to the former. If English subtitles are used, notification must be sent by email to girogirocortofilmfestival@gmail.com .
